Fight back against Phishing attacks
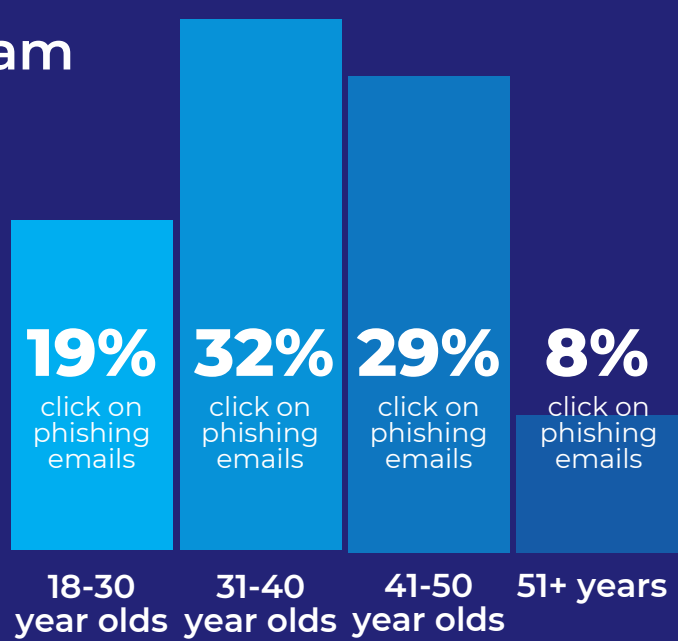

According to reports, 95% of all cyber attacks are triggered with a phishing email making it the most common form of cyber crime.

Employees' reactions to phishing emails in 2023

20%
Click on fake attachments

12%
Click on fake links

4%
Enter data on fake websites

How many of your team are likely to click on a phishing link?

Only 69% of UK workers can accurately describe what phishing is.

19% click on phishing emails — 18-30 year olds

32% click on phishing emails — 31-40 year olds

29% click on phishing emails — 41-50 year olds

8% click on phishing emails — 51+ years

Look out!

- Bad spelling and grammar
- Unusual sender address
- Deals too good to be true

Help your team with phishing drills

By simulating phishing attacks you can give your team a safe environment to practice spotting and responding to suspicious emails.

Successful phishing attacks can be reduced by 90%

I've already clicked!

Hindsight is a wonderful thing. If you realise you've fallen for a phishing attack:

1. Stay calm
2. Contact your IT provider as soon as possible